THURSDAY

Congratulations to Machelle at Southern Charmed Boutique for earning the Thankful Thursday spotlight! Below are the kind words Michelle had to say about Machelle.

"Machelle goes above and beyond as a boutique owner. She helps her customer in any way she can and even delivers if needed!!! She is just a sweet and overall wonderful person inside and out!!"

Thank you, Machelle for serving and loving our community! We are so thankful for you! We hope you enjoy your treats from Ruth's Flowers and Gifts

Who do you know that goes above and beyond to serve our community? Nominate them for Thankful Thursday at the link below.

SUPPORT KALEB CROUCH

On June 1st, 17-year-old Kaleb Crouch was a passenger in a car accident that left him paralyzed and unable to walk ever again. Kaleb is going into his senior year at Niangua High School. He was involved in FBLA, FFA, and basketball. He is an energetic and responsible young man who is an important part of our team here at Domino's. Please join us in our efforts to support Kaleb and his family.

Get ready for a fun day at the ballpark! ☐?

The Marshfield Chamber is excited to announce our August Networking Event will be at a Springfield Cardinals game!

The game will start at 1:05 PM, and we'll have a tent inside the stadium offering a delicious picnic-style lunch with hot dogs, hamburgers, chicken tenders, and plenty of soft drinks. Lunch will be served from 12:05 PM until just after the first pitch.

Chamber partners, their families, and employees can enjoy this event for just $20, which includes the picnic lunch and game tickets on the third base side of the field.

This event is also open to non-Chamber members at the full ticket price of $30.

Stay tuned for more details as they become available.

WE HOPE TO SEE YOU AT THE GAME!!! ☐?
