Marshfield's non-profit horse retirement farm, Brooks and Family Equine Retirement (BFER), is holding a unique fundraiser on Saturday, June 13 from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m. at its location, 937 N. Marshall. The crux of the event is the game "Horse Apple" Squares, where the person whose square is pooped in first wins $500. You don't need to be present to win. Squares are $25 and can be purchased by Venmo, cash or check. Call Jeff Hall, 314-624-3630, if you want to choose your own square.

The event also includes a free-to-watch horsemanship clinic by local farrier Jeremy Wallen and a BBQ and bake sale.

Proceeds fund college expenses of volunteer Wyatt Woelhoff and support BFER's intended summer program, which will expand touch therapy opportunities and provide daily activities for its youth volunteers.

BFER is a 501(c)(3) charitable organization that provides a final, loving retirement community for horses and free equine touch therapy to the community.

✨Thankful Thursday Spotlight ✨

This week, we are honored to recognize Jon Williams for the quiet, consistent work he does to keep our community looking its best.

Here's why Lyndall is so thankful for Jon:

"Jon Williams is one of those guys you see doing things that need to be done without seeking recognition. Jon makes sure to keep the flower beds at the bump outs maintained and beautiful as well as cleaning out the leaves. Jon does the things no one else wants to do to make the Marshfield Square beautiful, and I'm so thankful for him."

Jon, we are so thankful for your dedication to our community. We hope you enjoy your special treat to Bomgaars — you've more than earned it.

Who do you know that goes above and beyond to serve our community? Nominate them below.
