Marshfield's non-profit horse retirement farm, Brooks and Family Equine Retirement (BFER), is holding a unique fundraiser on Saturday, May 30 (rain date: June 13) from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m. at its location, 937 N. Marshall. The crux of the event is the game "Horse Apple" Squares, where the person whose square is pooped in first wins $500. You don't need to be present to win. Squares are $25 and can be purchased by Venmo, cash or check. Call Jeff Hall, 314-624-3630, if you want to choose your own square.

The event also includes a free-to-watch horsemanship clinic by local farrier Jeremy Wallen and a BBQ and bake sale.

Proceeds fund college expenses of volunteer Wyatt Woelhoff and support BFER's intended summer program, which will expand touch therapy opportunities and provide daily activities for its youth volunteers.

BFER is a 501(c)(3) charitable organization that provides a final, loving retirement community for horses and free equine touch therapy to the community.
